

Dr. Susan Eckerle

LiSyM-Cancer Program Management – Scientific Databases and Visualization
– Heidelberg Institute for Theoretical Studies (HITS) gGmbH, Heidelberg

PM Program and Communication Management

Role in LiSyM-Cancer

- Project and Communication Manager in LiSyM-Cancer
- Support the Director, Data Management, and Leadership Team
- Facilitation of cross-network consortial collaboration for the successful achievement of individual network and consortium milestones
- Scientific Project Manager for the C-TIP-HCC network

Expertise

- Coordination of research alliances and network management
- Cooperation and communication with partners and stakeholders
- Contract and financial management
- Applications and reporting
- Development of study documents
- Ethics, data protection, and compliance in studies

Degrees

- 2008, PhD:
 - Molecular Pathology of Human Lymphoma and Immune Cells
 - Senckenbergisches Institute for Pathology, Medical Center of the Johann Wolfgang-Goethe University, Frankfurt/Main
 - Institute for Cell Biology (Tumor Research), University Medical Center Essen-Duisburg
- Diploma in Human Biology, Philipps University Marburg

Professional Experience

- Since 2022, Program Management LiSyM-Cancer, HITS gGmbH Heidelberg
- Since 2021, Scientific Project Coordination C-TIP-HCC, University Medical Center Mannheim
- 2019 – 2020, Study Coordinator, BGU Frankfurt/Main
- 2019, Qualification EU-Fundraising, emcra GmbH, Berlin
- 2017 – 2018, Clinical Scientific Study Coordinator for GPOH, GBA, BMBF, Foundation funded research projects, Department of Pediatric Hematology and Oncology, University Medical Center Mainz
- 2013 – 2017, Study Manager, Interdisciplinary Collaborative Study on Cardiac and Vascular Late Sequelae in Long-term Survivors of Childhood Cancer (CVSS-study, <http://www.cvss-studie.de/>, DFG-funded), University Medical Center Mainz
- 2009 – 2013, Medical Affairs Manager for biologics for the treatment of rheumatological and orphan diseases, Pharmaceutical Industry